

Theresa Schroeder

Why does the candidate wish to be a NAMC Board Member?

I am excited at how the Atlanta chapter has grown and the resources it has culled to increase membership and active engagement. I would like to be involved in this continued growth.

Why would the candidate be an asset to NAMC by serving on the Board?

I would leverage my role in the industry and my relationships to increase NAMC's visibility and corporate engagement

What does the candidate want to accomplish during his/her two-year term?

Corporate support and sponsorship

BIOGRAPHY

Theresa Schroeder is Vice President of Community & Citizenship at Turner Construction focused on supplier diversity, strategic sales pursuits, and diversity & inclusion. This includes planning and executing programs designed to increase Turner's utilization of underutilized businesses as well spearhead the company's commitment to community service and employee engagement.

Certified in Diversity & Inclusion from Cornell University, and as a Master Compliance Administrator from The American Contract Compliance Association at Morgan State University; Theresa also obtained certification in Cultural Mastery, and in 2021 earned her Certified Diversity Professional credentials.

Originally, from Connecticut Theresa attended Sacred Heart University and currently resides in Decatur, GA with her husband, and sweet little dog Zack. 3 of her 4 children have unwilling left home and the youngest will graduate college in May of 2023.